(1) Swiss students (incl. Principality of Liechtenstein) and students with a B residence permit (not including residence permit B for educational purposes) or C residence permit are generally eligible to receive subsidised school fees by their canton of residence or place of origin. SHL submits an application on behalf of the students to the canton liable for granting the subsidies. Students from abroad who are resident in Switzerland before commencing their studies can also submit an application for clarification.

(2) Includes all digital learning materials, exam fees, excursions, a knife set, as well as kitchen and service uniforms. Not included is the application fee of CHF 280 (non-refundable).

(3) Service Fees include the admissions process, support for international students, accommodation assistance in semesters 1 & 3, HSLU programme coordination and related fees, plus marketing and communication costs.

(4) Breakfast, lunch and dinner from Monday to Thursday, breakfast and lunch on Friday.

(5) Including study and exam period.

(6) Applies to the 14-week tuition period, excluding study and exam period. If students would also like to eat at SHL during the study and exam period, they can book an additional F&B package of CHF 909 per semester.

Accommodation possible at Hotel SHL (subject to availability) or external accommodation. At Hotel SHL, prices start at CHF 4'720 per semester for a single Budget room with private bathroom or at CHF 5'360 per semester for a single Easy room with private bathroom. The booking of specific room categories is subject to availability.

Semesters 2 and 4 are paid 6-month industry internships.

- Students must complete at least one of the internships in Switzerland.
- The minimum gross salary per month for internships in Switzerland is CHF 2'359.
